RULES

- 1 Any recognised solo instrument is acceptable, including the voice.
- 2 If you play an instrument you must be aged between 12 and 16 inclusive on 3 March 2007. If you are a singer you must be aged between 12 and 18 inclusive on 3 March 2007.
- 3 You must be resident in Northern Ireland on 1 January 2007.
- 4 You are required to play or sing one solo piece of music, lasting not longer than 5 minutes. Your chosen piece of music should be sent with the entry form to the organisers by 31 January 2007. This is for the adjudicator's use. If you need the official accompanist, you must send an extra copy of your piece in the key in which you intend to play or sing. The same piece may be played at your heat and at the final.
- 5 An official accompanist will be available at the heats and the final, but you may of course arrange your own. A grand piano will be used for performance (and accompaniment) in the hall. An upright piano will be available for rehearsal for a short time before the heats begin each evening. It is your responsibility to arrange your own rehearsals with the official accompanist.
- 6 Your travel to and expenses at the heats and the final are your responsibility. Any photocopying is also your responsibility.
- 7 You may enter more than once, provided your chosen instrument is different on each occasion. A separate entry form and fee is needed for each instrument. This does not apply if you are a singer aged over 16 because you are too old to qualify to play an instrument (see rule 2).
- 8 The adjudicator's decisions will be final. Written adjudications will not be available, so please arrange for notes to be taken of any comments made about your performance.
- 9 The organisers are not responsible for any loss or damage to instruments, cases or attachments. A music stand will be provided.
- 10 It is a condition of entry that you allow Comber Rotary Club to take and use your photograph for publicity purposes and that you understand that your photograph may be used in Rotary publications, news media and on the Comber Rotary Club website.
- 11 Entry form, music, and fee (£5, payable to Comber Rotary Club) must be sent by January 31 to:

R D Anderson, Comber Rotary Club
